

Documentary screening and conversation with director Toshi Sakai
First presentation of Cimarronaje en Panamá in the USA

CIMARRONAJE EN PANAMÁ

A documentary about African self-determination in the isthmus.

Free and Open to the Public
Film by Toshi Sakai, 2017
Organized: SPN551 Prof. Paul Firbas

Monday April 2, 2018
5.45 -8 pm. Melville Lib N3060

Film in Spanish with English subtitles (59 minutes)

Toshi Sakai has visited Panama since 1976, lived with cimarron descendants and collected information on cimarron heritage. This documentary recounts the origin, lifestyles and the impact of African resistance in Panama. Visit www.cimarronaje.com