

Latin American & Caribbean Studies Fall 2002

Http://www.stonybrook.edu/lacc

Wednesday, September 25

12:30 - 2:00 PM

SAC Lobby

Refreshments Served

Hispanic Heritage Month Opening Ceremony

"Unification through Education/Unificación através de la educación"

Join the opening festivities with entertainment and guest speakers.

Sponsored by Hispanic Heritage Month and Latin American & Caribbean Studies.

Wednesday, September 25

5 - 7:00 PM

LACS Gallery

SBS N-320

Refreshments Served

Opening Art Exhibit and Reception

"Fruitscapes"

Introducing Constanza Mallol; a talented Chilean painter contemplates the pleasure of apples, pears and other fruits. The artist can be reached by e-mail at constanzam@earthlink.net

Series: "Latino/Latin American Arts"

Co-Sponsored by Latin American & Caribbean Studies and Department of Art.

Friday, October 18

9:00 AM - 6:00 PM

LACS Conference Room

SBS N-320

Refreshments Served

SUNY Conference

"Rethinking the States of Latin American, Latino and Caribbean Studies in New York State" An all-day conference bringing together the leading Latin Americanist scholars of the whole SUNY system.

Series: "Crossing the Disciplines/NY Latin Americanists"

Sponsored by LACS, Department of History, Sociology and Hispanic Languages & Literature.

Wednesday, October 30

12:00 - 2:00 PM

SAC Multi-Purpose Room

Hispanic Heritage Month Awards Luncheon

Partnership Fund for Latino Scholars and Research

Fundraising luncheon to celebrate the accomplishments of Stony Brook students and staff for excellence, leadership and community service.

For tickets or donations contact Hispanic Heritage Committee at 632-6280 or by email: imolina@notes.cc.sunysb.edu

Friday, November 1

5 - 7:00 PM

LACS Conference Room

SBS N-320

Refreshments Served

Special Event

"Day of the Dead - Día del los Muertos"

Our second annual celebration of the Mexican holiday with a real-life "Ofrenda" (Home Altar). Enjoy this healthy alternative to Halloween.

Series: "Latino/Latin American Arts"

Wednesday, November 13

10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

LACS Conference Room

SBS N-320

Prime Time

"LACS Minor"

Want to know Latin America today? Sign up to be a LACS Minor...

Movie & Refreshments

Thursday, November 21

1:00 - 2:30 PM

LACS Conference Room

SBS N-320

Speaker

Brooke Larson, History, Stony Brook

"Insurgent Literacy and Indigenous Politics in the Bolivian Andes of the early 20th-Century".

Series: "Stony Brook Latin Americanists"

Co-sponsored by Latin American & Caribbean Studies and Department of History.

NEW

Fri., November 22

4 - 6:00 PM

Stony Brook MANHATTAN

401 Park Ave @ 28th St

2nd Floor

Colloquium

"Stony Brook-Yale Colloquium on the Americas"

Moises Naim, Editor in Chief, Foreign Policy Magazine

"Five Wars"

Venezuelan Naim is the first Latin American editor of influential Foreign Policy magazine and will talk about some surprising new kinds of challenges to U.S. dominance in the 21st century.

Sponsored by Latin American & Caribbean Studies, Office of the Provost and Yale CLAIS.

Tuesday, December 3

2 - 3:30PM

LACS Conference Room

SBS N-320

Speaker

"Our Medical Mission Esperanza (Honduras)"

Lilly Scarlet, Propapa Mission

A local St. Charles Hospital medical aid group discusses their Central American health campaign.

Series: "Latino/Americas"

Sponsored by Latin American & Caribbean Studies and Community Relations, Stony Brook University Hospital

