OLLI MEMBER AND WORKSHOP LEADER WROTE A BOOK

Martin Levinson, OLLI member & Workshop leader, wrote a book titled "Lunch with the American People: Satirical Food for Thought".

"Lunch with the American People" is a satirical tour de force that is high in irony and humor and low on platitudes and boring observations. Reading it will satisfy your hunger for smart, information-packed commentary on subjects ranging from politics and social affairs to self-improvement hucksterism.

In addition, Martin Levinson will be presenting his book to different local libraries. For more information on where and how you can enjoy these, click the presentation info button!
